

Lander University

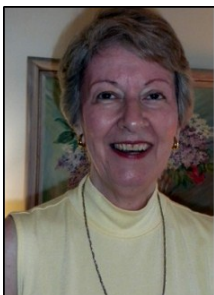

Montessori Teacher Education Program
in cooperation with Greenwood School District 50 presents:

Montessori Geography

Presented by Helen Devere
Saturday, February 4, 2012
Time: 9:00 am – 4:00 pm
Place: Matthews Elementary
725 Marshall Road
Greenwood, SC 29646

Enjoy a cultural experience of ideas for geography, science, art and practical life through pictures and materials. Involve the children in hands on activities and watch their enthusiasm and knowledge grow.
For 3-6 and 6-9 Classroom Teachers

Ms. Devere holds AMS credentials at the early childhood (2½-6) and elementary I (6-9) levels and has over 28 years of experience in Montessori classrooms. An experienced Montessori teacher educator, Helen has served as director and instructor of both the Northeast Montessori Institute in Boston, MA and the Orlando Montessori Teacher Education Institute in Orlando, FL and as instructor for the Seacoast Center for Education Southeast and Lander University.

6 Hours of SCDSS Training Available

Participants MUST pre-register by January 27, 2012

To register contact Barbara Ervin at bervin@lander.edu

AMERICAN MONTESSORI SOCIETY education that transforms lives
Affiliated Teacher Education Program

Lander
UNIVERSITY